December Meeting

December 18th – 7:30 p.m.

RCAF Club

Holiday “Pot Luck” and Social

If you missed the November meeting you missed a doozy! Four tiers shared their favorite flies. Bill Chunik tied a fly he calls his “go to” fly, the Despair. Paul Oltsher and Wayne Phillips tied the Pond Fly and Water Boatman respectively, all the while throwing jabs at each other regarding vise preference. Meanwhile, Dennis Pagoda sat silently in his corner demonstrating a Blue Bucktail Fly that produced well for him all year. All who attended learned something new, including the tiers, who picked up some helpful hints. All in all, it was a great night.

A “heads up” to everyone regarding the December Challenge. You are encouraged to tie a fly in celebration of Saskatchewan’s Grey Cup win. So head on over to your favorite “Fly Guy” (see below) and pick up something green and white for some extra fun in December.

On another note, if you have ANY pictures from the 2007 fishing season, please get them to Ken Dornan for inclusion in a slide show he hopes to have ready for the December Social. Ken can be contacted at 374-9623 or kdornan@sasktel.net
